“Incorporating a business in an established free zone has several advantages”

Syam P. Prabhu, Founder and Managing Director, Aurion

What challenges do entrepreneurs usually face when setting up a company? How can they avoid such pitfalls?

As there are more than 40 free trade zones in the UAE offering various packages for business incorporation, it becomes challenging for an investor to choose the right one for their business.

Entrepreneurs often get lured by cheap free zone company formation packages. But such packages may have lot of limitations and hidden costs that may come up after the company starts operating.

Incorporating a business in an established free zone has several advantages such as value-added tax exemption, ability to take physical office premise, availability of warehouses, and easy bank compliance processes.

Furthermore, it becomes quite overwhelming for foreign investors to get an understanding of all the UAE business laws relevant to their business activity. Aurion educates investors with up-to-date knowledge about the necessary rules related to the business operations in the UAE.

It is also challenging for a new business to open bank accounts due to compliance policies. In order to support entrepreneurs opening their bank accounts, we help them build their profiles projecting their business experiences and source of funds.

What initiatives has Aurion taken to contribute to the UAE's thriving startup ecosystem?

Aurion strives to educate clients on the latest company laws and also assists them in administrative work. The team of expert business consultants at Aurion organizes regular business workshops for clients.

As part of our 15th anniversary celebrations, we conducted Consultants Conclave 2022 and discussed ways of improving the ease of doing business in the free trade zones.
